CHAPTER 10

FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION

10000. Purpose. This chapter outlines the provisions of the Gun Control Act of 1968 and related laws as they apply to DOD personnel.

10001. Scope. a. This chapter prescribes procedures, assigns responsibility, and outlines eligibility requirements for the importation into the US of privately owned firearms and ammunition by DOD personnel.

- b. It specifies controls to ensure compliance with regulations and documentation requirements of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF), and the US Customs Service, Department of the Treasury.
- c. Procedures for the intrastate movement of privately owned firearms and ammunition, and procedures for the importation of other than privately owned firearms and ammunition are contained in Service regulations. Procedures for the export of privately owned firearms from the US are contained in Service regulations and the International Traffic in Arms Regulation (ITAR).
- d. This chapter does not apply to control, registration, or shipment of war trophy firearms, which are governed by AR 608-4/ OP-NAVINST 3460.7A/AFR 125–13/MCO 5800.6-A. Documentation requirements for these firearms are included herein for reference purposes only.

10002. Explanation of terms. When used in this chapter and in forms prescribed herein. the following terms apply:

a. Ammunition. Ammunition or cartridge cases, primers, bullets, or propellant powder designed for use in any firearm other than an antique firearm. The term shall not include any shotgun shot or pellet designed for use other than as a single, complete projectile load for one shotgun hull or casing, or any unloaded, non-metallic shotgun hull or casing not having a primer.

b. Antique firearm. Any firearm (including any firearm with a matchlock, flintlock, percussion cap, or similar type of ignition system) manufactured in or before 1898.

c. Curios or museum pieces.

- (1) Firearms and ammunition which are certified by the curator of a municipal, State, or Federal museum which exhibits firearms as curios or relics of museum interest; or
- (2) Any other firearm or ammunition which derives a substantial part of its monetary value from the fact that it is novel, rare, or bizarre, or that it is associated with some historical figure, period, or event.

NOTE: PROOF OF QUALIFICATION OF A PARTICULAR FIREARM OR ITEM OF AMMUNITION UNDER THIS CATEGORY MAY BE ESTABLISHED BY EVIDENCE THAT LIKE FIREARMS OR AMMUNITION ARE NOT AVAILABLE, EXCEPT AS COLLECTOR'S ITEMS, OR THAT THE VALUE OF LIKE FIREARMS OR AMMUNITION AVAILABLE IN ORDINARY COMMERCIAL CHANNELS IS SUBSTANTIALLY LESS.

d. Destructive device.

- (1) Any explosive, incendiary, or poison gas—.
 - (a) Bomb.
 - (b) Grenade.
- (c) Rocket having a propellant charge of more than 4 ounces.
- (d) Missile having an explosive or incendiary charge of more than $\frac{1}{4}$ ounce.
 - (e) Mine.
- (f) Device similar to any of the devices described above.
- (2) Any type of weapon (other than a shotgun or a shotgun shell which ATF finds is generally recognized as particularly suitable for sporting purposes), by whatever name known, which will, or which may, be readily converted to expel $\bf a$ projectile by the action of an explosive or other propellant, and which has a barrel with a bore more than 1/2 inch in diameter.

- (3) Any combination of parts either designed or intended for use in converting any device into a destructive device described in (1) or (2) above, and from which a destructive device may be readily assembled.
- (4) The term destructive shall not include—
- (u) Any device which is designed or redesigned for use as something other than a weapon.
- (b) Any device which, although originally designed for use as a weapon, is redesigned for use as a signaling, pyrotechnic, line throwing, safety, or similar device.
- (c) Any other device which ATF determines is not likely to be used as a weapon, or is an antique.

e. Firearms.

- (1) Any weapon (including a starter gun) which will, is designed to, or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by action of an explosive;
- (2) The frame or receiver of any such weapon;
- (3) Any firearm muffler or firearm silencer; or
 - (4) Any destructive device.
- f. Frame or receiver. That part of the firearm which provides housing for the hammer, bolt or breechlock, and firing mechanism, and which is usually threaded at its forward portion to receive the barrel.

g. Machinegun.

- (1) Any weapon which shoots, is designed to shoot, or can be readily restored to shoot automatically more than one shot without manual reloading by a single function of the trigger;
- (2) The frame or receiver of any such "weapon; or
- (3) Any combination of parts designed and intended for use in converting a weapon into a machinegun, and any combination of parts from which a machinegun can be assembled if such parts are in the possession or under the control of a person.

h. Prohibited firearms.

- (1) A shotgun having a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length.
- (2) A weapon made from a shotgun, if such weapon, as modified, has an overall length of less than 26 inches or a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length.
- (3) A rifle having a barrel or barrels of less than 16 inches in length.
- (4) A weapon made from a rifle, if such weapon, as modified, has an overall length of less than 26 inches or a barrel or barrels of less than 16 inches in length.
- (5) Any other weapon, as defined in m below.
 - (6) A machinegun.
 - (7) A muffler or a silencer for any firearm.
 - (8) A destructive device.
- i. Rifle. A weapon designed or redesigned, made or remade, and intended to be fired from the shoulder; and designed or redesigned and made or remade to use the energy of the explosive in a fixed cartridge to fire only a single projectile through a rifled bore for each single pull of the trigger.

j. State of residence.

- (1) Civilian personnel. The State in which an individual regularly resides or maintains his/her home.
- (2) Military personnel on active duty as a member of the US Armed Forces.
- (a) The State in which his/her permanent duty station is located; or
- (b) The home of record, State of residence of the dependent, or place of storage of personal property incident to intertheater transfers.
- k. Surplus military firearms. Any firearm, including the frame or receiver of any firearm; that was the property of the military at any time, including irregular as well as regular forces of any nation. Alteration of such a firearm does not change its status as a surplus military firearm.

m. Any other weapon.

- (1) Any weapon or device capable of being concealed on the person from which a shot can be discharged through the energy of an explosive.
- (2) A pistol or revolver having a barrel with a smooth bore designed or redesigned to fire a fixed shotgun shell.
- (3) Weapons with combination shotgun and rifle barrels that are 12 inches or more, but less than 18 inches in length, from which only a single discharge can be made from either barrel without manual reloading, including any such weapon which may be readily restored to fire.
- Note 1. Such term shall not include a pistol or a revolver having a rifled bore or weapons designed, made, or intended to be fired from the shoulder and not capable of firing fixed ammunition.
- Note 2. The barrel of a rifle or shotgun is measured without ammunition or expended case in the chamber; with breechblock closed and locked; with the firing pin or hammer retracted as ready for firing; and by internal measurements from the face of the closed bolt or breech-block to the end of the barrel.
- 10003. Purpose and provisions of the Gun Control Act of 1968. a. The purpose of the Gun Control Act of 1968 is to provide support to Federal, State, and local law enforcement officials in their fight against crime and violence.
- ★b. Title I of the Gun Control Act imposes strict controls on the interstate movement and importation of firearms and ammunition which must be complied with by all personnel. It further relates to the licensing of persons engaged in the firearms business, including the buying and selling of curios and museum pieces by licensed collectors.
- ★c. The National Firearms Act," es amended by Title II of the Gun Control Act, regulates the manufacture, importation, and transfer of firearms covered by the National Firearms Act and imposition of taxes related thereto.
- ★d. Title 18, United Statea Code, Appendix, Section 1202, prohibits the receipt, possession, or transportation of a firearm by a person who has been convicted of a felony, has been discharged by the Armed Forces under dishonorable conditions, has been adjudged by a Federal or State court to be mentally incompetent, is an alien in the US or is a former citizen of the US who 'has renounced his citizenship.

10004. Importation provisions of the Gun Control Act of 1968. a. The Gun Control Act of 1968 contains controls that relate to transportation, shipment, receipt, and importation of privately owned firearms and ammunition, and firearms and ammunition for the use of the US and any department, agency, State, or political subdivision thereof.

- effective 22 October 1968 and apply to the CTUS, as well as, to Guam; American Samoa; the Virgin Islands of the US; Johnston, Midway, Swan, Wake, Howland, Elderberry, Baker, Jarvis, Canton, Palmyrn Kingman Reef, Sand and, Navasea Islands. The Director, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF), Department of the Treasury, is responsible for the administration and enforcement of this act. The US Customs Service is responsible for the enforcement of the import aspects as they primarily relate to, but are not necessarily limited to, the presentation of the proper documentation to effect border clearance.
- c. Firearms and ammunition normally may be imported only by persons possessing Federal import licenses and appropriate import permits. Exceptions to this requirement applicable to DoD personnel are covered in paragraph 10005 below.

10005. Importation requirements. a. Military personnel.

- (1) Members of the US Armed Forces may import into the US, at any time, any reasonable number of personally owned firearms and amount of ammunition, subject to the following:
- (a) Member is on active duty outside the US, or has been on active duty outside the US within the 60-day period immediately preceding the importation.
- (b) Firearms and ammunition are suitable for sporting purposes, or are properly registered war trophy firearms, asset forth herein, and are not prohibited firearms (see para 10002h above).
- (c) Firearms and ammunition are intended `solely for the personal use of the member.
- (d) Importation is to the place of residence of the member or to his/her permanent duty station.

C 1, DOD 5030.49–R 1 September 1980

★(e) Importation is in accordance with applicable Federal laws and State/territorial laws of the place of residence. Members may consult *ATF Publication 5300.5, "Your Guide to Firearms Regulations," as in paragraph 10006U(1) (a)3.

- ★(2) Import permit requirements. Make application for a permit to import firearms and ammunition on ATF Form 6 (Firearms), Part 11 (Application and Permit for Importation of Firearms, Ammunition and Implements of War) (fig. 10-1). Send applications to the Director, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, ATTN: Imports Branch, Washington, DC 20226. ATF-approved permits will be required for the importation of all personally owned firearms and ammunition, regardless of date of purchase, except for—
- (a) Firearms and ammunition previously taken out of the US by the member returning the firearm.
- (b) Antique firearms, as defined herein, and muzzle-loading firearms regardless of the date of manufacture of such muzzle-loading firearms.
- (c) Firearms and ammunition shipped by a licensed dealer in the US direct to a member on active duty overseas, or specially for the member through an authorized oversea Rod and Gun Club or a Military Service retail exchange facility.
- ★(d) Firearms classified as war trophies when accompanied by a properly executed DD Form 603 (Registration of War Trophy Firearm) indicating the firearm was properly acquired and registered during a period designated by HQDA (DAPE-HRE-PO), WASH DC 20310, acting as executive agent for DoD.
- (e) A combined total, under the special provisions of Revenue Ruling 69-309, of up to three rifles and shotguns (no handguns) and up to 1000 rounds of rifle and/or shotgun ammunition, subject to the following conditions, which are additional to those listed in a(1) above:
- 1, Importation must be incident to return of the member from overseas on PCS orders.
- 2. Firearms and ammunition are with the accompanied baggage of the returning member, with his/her shipped household goods or unaccompanied baggage, but not mailed, except that the firearms may be mailed by a Transportation Officer as official mail.

★3. The member furnishes to the US Customs officer at the US port of entry releasing the firearms and ammunition, a completed ATF Form 6A (Release and Receipt of Imported Firearms, Ammunition, and Implements of War) (fig. 10-2) and a Certification under the Revenue Ruling 69–309, through use of paragraph 3, DD Form 1252-1.

b. Civilian personnel.

- (1) Firearms and ammunition acquired overseas cannot be personally imported into the US by DoD civilian employees, regardless of source of purchase or acquisition. Firearms and ammunition for personal use and not for resale or gift to others, which are suitable for sporting purposes, may be imported into the employee's State of residence through a licensed firearms dealer in the US located in that same State of residence. The licensed dealer will file an ATF Form 6, Part I (Application and Permit for Importation of Firearms, Ammunition, and Implements of War) with the Director, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, Department of the Treasury, Washington, DC 20226.
- (2) Firearms and ammunition previously taken overseas. Civilian personnel may import, personally, and without an import permit, any firearms and/or ammunition certified for customs purposes as having been previously taken overseas from the US by the civilian member who is returning it.
- (3) Antique firearms. Civilian members may import personally, and without an import permit; antique firearms as described herein, and muzzle-loading firearms (regardless of the date of manufacture of such muzzleloading firearms).
- c. Other importation In addition to the importations of privately owned firearms and ammunition covered in \boldsymbol{a} and \boldsymbol{b} above, the following importations by members are allowed. Except for (1) and (2), import permits are required for:
- (1) A firearm issued, under provisions of military regulations, to a general or flag officer.
- (2) Firearms and ammunition imported for, sold or shipped to, or issued for the use of,

^{*} Copies of ATF Publication 5300.5 may be obtained from the US Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402. Stock number is 048-012-00018-3; price is $2.90 each. Other ATF forms may be obtained from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Distribution Center, 3800 S. Four Mile Run Drive, Arlington, VA 22206.

- (3) Firearms or ammunition being brought into the US for scientific or research purposes, or for use in connection with competition or training for competitive firing, and proper documentation is provided.
- (4) Firearms, other than machineguns, as determined by ATF to be unserviceable and not readily restorable to firing condition, being entered into the US as curios or museum pieces.
- d. Conditional importation. Any firearm or ammunition may be imported on a "conditional" basis for the purpose of examination and/or testing to determine whether the firearm or ammunition qualifies for importation. The determination will be made by ATF.
- e. Temporary importation. Any individual on duty overseas may send a firearm, normally permitted importation, to a licensed dealer in the US for repair and return to the individual at his oversea location. The firearm will normally be mailed, with the words "FIREARM-REPAIR AND RETURN" clearly marked on the outside of the package.
- f. Import permits. Firearms for which import permits are required may be sent/carried to the US prior to receipt of a permit. Such firearms will be held by US Customs at the US port of entry, pending presentation by the member of an import permit. This should be done only in those instances where an application for a permit has been submitted to ATF, and the member has not received the approved permit prior to his/her departure from the oversea area. Such firearms will not, however, be shipped in personal property shipments. 10006. Procedures for importation. a. Importation with an ATF-approved permit.
 - (1) Military members.
- (a) Application for an import permit, if required, will be submitted on an ATF Form 6 (Firearms), Part II, as outlined above in 10005a(3). When submitting the application, the "following specific instructions apply:.
- 1. If the permit is to be mailed to the member, and the member's name and address are indicated in item 2 of the form, leave item 1 blank.
- 2. If the permit is to be mailed to an agent for the member located at the overseas duty station who is to arrange movement of the firearms and ammunition to the US, or to the member in the US following his return from overseas, or to an agent in the US at the member's place or residence who is to secure release and accept the firearms and ammunition from US Customs, then the applicable name and address will be entered in item 1 of the form.

- 3. Applications to ATF for permits to import handguns into the US, to a State or territory which requires specific State or territory authorization to own or possess a handgun, must be accompanied by such authorization. ATF will not approve applications which are submitted without the accompanying authorization from the State or territory. For information laws pertaining to a particular State or territory, members should consult a military customs activity within their command or a Transportation Officer, both of whom should have ATF Publication 5300.5, "Firearms Regulations."
- 4. Retain one copy of the. completed form and send the original and two copies to ATF as specified in 10005a(2) above.
- (b) ATF will determine if the firearms and ammunition are authorized for importation into the US in accordance with standards established by that office. Factoring criteria used in classifying handguns for importation purposes are contained in figure 10-4. Standards established for foreign-made. firearms are listed in appendix A of this regulation.
- 1. ATF will indicate approval action in item 15 and 16 of the returned ATF Form 6, Part II, and will return the form to the member or his designated agent.
- 2. When ATF has approved the importation, blank ATF Form 6A will be returned with the approved ATF Form 6, Part II. The ATF Forms 6A must be completed and provided to US Customs in the US for all firearms being imported with an import permit, and those firearms and ammunition imported without a permit under the provisions of Revenue Ruling 69-309.
- 3. The "Gun Control Act of 1978 provides. no procedure for appeal of a denial for an import permit, nor does it provide for Government reimbursement to the member for any personal loss resulting from a denial.
- (2) Civilian personnel importing firearms and ammunition, other than those previously taken out of the US, must arrange with a licensed firearms dealer in the State of residence of the member to apply for an import permit on his/her behalf. An ATF Form 6 (Firearms) (Part I) is used by the dealer for this purpose.

- b. Importation without an ATF-approved permit.
- (1) Firearms and ammunition previously taken out of the US.
- \bigstar (a) Customs Form 4455 (Certificate of Registration) (fig.10-5) should be executed by the member, military and civilian, when shipping long guns (rifles and shotguns) from the US to an oversea area, or when shipping handguns or ammunition from the US to an oversea area. When the member is carrying firearm.s/ammunition from the US, he/she should execute Customs Form 4457 (Certificate of Registration) (fig. 10–6). These forms are to be executed prior to departure from the US at any US customs office or Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Office. The forms will be used to certify that the firearms/ammunition were previously taken out of the US by the member upon the member's subsequent return. In lieu of certification on Customs Forms 4455 and 4457, proof of possession in the US maybe established by a bill of sale, a receipt or other such document, a household goods inventory or packing list, or an application to ship personal property.
- (b) Should the member ship or mail firearms and ammunition previously taken out of the US back into the US in household goods or unaccompanied baggage, the certification in item 2 of DD Form 1252-1 (US Customs Declaration for Personal Property Shipments) (fig. 10-8) will be completed. The DD Form 1252-1 will be accompanied with a copy of the certification described in (a) above.
- (2) Firearms and ammunition required overseas by a military member from a licensed dealer in the US. Importation of those firearms and ammunition acquired overseas by a military member directly from a US firearms dealer, or specifically for the military member through an authorized Rod and Gun Club or a retail Service exchange facility, must be supported by a bill of sale or an invoice, if the importation is to be accomplished without an ATF-approved import permit.

- (3) The importation of a firearm issued to a general or flag officer, can be accomplished through presentation of proper personal identification.
- (4) Antique firearms, as defined herein, may be imported without any documentation or special procedures.
- (5) Firearms and ammunition being imported without a permit, under the provisions of Revenue Ruling 69–309 (applicable only to active duty military members), must be carried to the US in the member's accompanied baggage upon his/her return or moved as part of the member's shipped household goods or unaccompanied baggage. Firearms may be shipped as official mail by the Transports.tion Officer as part of the owner's personal.

- \bigstar (6) War trophy firearms, as defined. herein, can be imported without a permit, but must have been registered to the member on a DD Form 603 during the period designated by HQDA, as executive agent for the DoD.
- 10007. Shipping and packing requirements. All firearms being imported and shipped, mailed, or carried to the US must be free of explosive charges to be authorized such movement at Government expense. As an additional condition for such movement authorization; all firearms and ammunition being imported must be accompanied with the documentation prescribed in figure 10–9 (Decision Logic Table). This documentation must be in evidence when the firearms and ammunition are turned over to a transportation officer, carrier, or. postal official for movement. The carrier will be informed that the documentation constitutes written notification that firearms and/or ammuniion are contained therein.
- a. Unaccompanied baggage/household goods. Firearms and ammunition being imported by a military member may be included in his/her shipped unaccompanied baggage or household goods provided such shipment is authorized under appropriate service shipping regulation.
- (1) The member will indicate the presence of firearms and ammunition on the DD Form 1701 (Inventory of Household Goods) and in item 16 of the DD Form 1299 (Application for Shipment and/or Storage of Personal Property) (fig. 10-10). In addition to the documentation required under other provisions of." this regulation, the member will execute a DD Form 1252-1 to be made part of the documentation accompanying the movement of the firearms and ammunition.

- (2) Firearms authorized shipment in unaccompanied baggage/household goods must be packed separately from other personal property in the shipment, placed in the number 1 container of the shipment, and positioned in the container such that they are readily accessible for examination by customs, when required.
- (3) Ammunition and components thereof which are authorized shipment under appropriate Service shipping regulations must be shipped separately from other unaccompanied baggage/household goods shipments. Such ammunition will be packed in individual boxes, so that the gross weight of each box and its contents does not exceed 100 pounds.
- (4) Documentation. A completed ATI? Form 6A (except for antique firearms) and other documents, as required under the provisions of this regulation, will be attached to the original DD Form 1252-1. The original DD Form 1252-1, with these supporting documents, will reattached to the DD Form 1252 if the firearms and ammunition are being shipped with other personal property or to the manifest that accompanies the shipment.
- b. Accompanied baggage. Fires.rmS and ammuniion may be carried as part "of accompanied baggage, but must "be placed in a locked bag, moved as checked baggage that is not accessible to any passenger during transport, with the firearms in an unloaded condition.

c. Mail.

- (1) In those areas where applicable local military regulations or host country considerations do not prohibit the transmittal of firearms by mail, the use of the military postal system is authorized for the following:
- (a) Transportation of any firearms imported for, sold to, shipped to, or issued for the use of any department or agency of the US Government when mailed under appropriate official indicia.
- (b) Sporting or antique firearms which qualify under the provisions of paragraph 124, Postal Service Manual, "and addressed to—
 - 1. A member of the US Armed Forces.
- 2. Any dealer, such as a military exchange, entitled by law to engage in business as a firearms dealer and authorized to use the military postal system.

- 3. Concealable firearms, such as handguns, are nonmailable except as indicated in section 124.5 of the Postal Service Manual, with the exception of Rod and Gun Clubs which are specifically prohibited, by DoD policy, from mailing concealable firearms. Restrictions on nonconcealable firearms are contained in part 126.2, Postal Service Manual.
- 4. Owners of firearms authorized to use military postal facilities will consult military postal representatives to determine if the firearm is mailable prior to presenting thefirearm for mailing. Firearms being imported without an import permit, under the-provisions of Revenue Ruling 69-309, are prohibited from being mailed, except by a Transportation Officer, as official mail. Firearms mailed without documentation set forth in figure 10-9 will be detained by customs at the port of entry pending compliance with documentation requirements. Supporting documentation is the responsibility of the owner.
- 6. Ammunition, as defined herein, is nonmailable.
- d. Documentation. When firearms are presented by members to oversea Transportatio.n Officers or postal officials for shipment without proper documentation for customs clearance (i.e., certificate, affidavit, or import permit), such firearms will either be-
- (1) Packed and forwarded separately "from household goods or baggage shipments; or
- (2) Held by the member's agent in the oversea area until the proper customs clearance documentation is obtained. Firearms will then be Shipped.
- 16008. Responsibilities. a. Transportation officers are responsible for—
- (1) Counseling of members on their responsibilities for documentation and shipment requirements for privately owned firearms and ammunition, as set forth in figure 10–9 and the provisions of this regulation. Information on importation of, firearms and ammunition may be obtained from ATF Publication 7570.5 (Importation of Firearms by Members of the Armed Forces). This publication may be obtained as outlined in paragraph 10009 below.
- (2) Ensuring that owners are furnished the factoring criteria for evaluating handguns (set prerequisite for importation in this chapter will be-

- (1) Detained by customs. Firearms packed in a personal property shipment should be removed (remaining personal property will then be released for onward movement) and stored either at a military or customs facility designated by customs to await the issuance of required import authorization;
- (2) Abandoned by the owner to the Government; or
 - (3) Exported.

- b. Firearms and ammunition in accompanied checked baggage which are not released under a certificate or declaration or not supported by an approved import permit, as required by figure 10–9, will be detained by customs at the port of entry pending receipt of the import permit or other required documentation. To expedite the release of detained firearms and onward movement to destination, owners must-
- (1) Promptly prepare ATF Form 6 (Firearms), Part II when requested by customs, in accordance with paragraphs 10005 and 10006.
- (2) Include on the ATF Form 6 (Firearms), Part II—
- (a) The port of entry where the firearm is being detained by customs;
- (b) Authorization for port of entry transportation officer to aet as agent; and
- (c) A request that ATF forward the import permit to the agent.
- (3) Obtain a receipt for the firearm detained by customs.
- (4) Notify the transportation officer at the port of entry where the firearm is detained that an application for the ATF Form 6 (Firearms), Part 11 has been submitted to ATF.
- (5) Furnish the transportation officer at port of entry the correct address to which the firearm should be shipped when released from customs, request that he complete the processing of the ATF Form 6A (Firearms), and arrange the onward movement of the firearm.
- c. When firearms are included in direct procurement method shipments of personal property and arrive at ports of entry without supporting customs documentation, the transportation officer at the port of entry will—

- (1) Provide liaison with the customs officer at the port of entry, including having firearms removed from shipment and the remainder of the personal property released for shipment to destination.
- (2) Notify destination transportation officer and request that he forward the required documentation from the owner.
- (3) Upon receipt of the approved import permit from the owner, complete the processing and provide ATF Form 6A (Firearms) to customs, pack and crate the firearm, and promptly forward it. to destination.
- d. When firearms are included in Through Government Bill of Lading shipments of personal property moving by commercial carriers, the carrier is responsible for advising the nearest transportation officer when firearms are removed from a shipment for detention by customs and requesting assistance in securing the release of the firearms for onward movement to destination.
- 10010. Disposition of firearms not authorized importation. a. Firearms and ammunition held by the owner or his agent in an area outside the United States, which are not authorized importation, will be disposed of in the oversea area in accordance with applicable departmental regulations and laws of the country concerned.

INSTRUCTION SHEET FOR ATF FORM 6 PART 11
(Detach this instruction sheet before submitting your application)

GENERAL INFORMATION

- The Director, Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms may issue a permit authorizing the importation of a firearm or ammunition into the United States to the place of residence of any military member of the U.S. Armed Forces who is on active duty outside the United States, or who has been on active duty outside the United States within the 60-day period immediately preceding the intended importation, provided:
 - (a) that such firearm or ammunition is generally recognized as particularly suitable for sporting purposes; excluding surplus military firearms;
 - (b) that such firearm or ammunition is intended for the personal use of such member; and
 - (c) that such importation would not constitute a violation of any provision of the Gun Control Act of 1968, Title VII of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, as amended (82 Stat. 236; 18 U.S.C. Appendix), or of any State law or local ordinance at the place of the member's residence.
- A person not meeting the above criteria may of a Federal firearms licensee to enter the vided that the firearm is important.
- 2. A permit is not required for a fireage of immunition brought into the United States or any possession chereof by any person who can establish to the satisfaction of Customs that such firearm or ammunition was previously taken out of the United States or any possession thereof by such person.
- 4. No permit will be issued to import a surplus military firearm, a firearm or ammunition which is not generally recognized as particularly suitable for sporting purposes, or a firearm as defined in 26 U.S.C. 5845 (a) (e.g., machinegun, silencer, destructive device, short-barreled rifle or short-barreled shotgun, etc.).
- A copy of any State license, permit, certificate of registration, or firearm identification card, required to own or possess (as opposed to purchase) a pistol or revolver at the member's place of residence in the United States must be furnished with the application to import a pistol or revolver. For a military member of the Armed Forces, the place of residence means the State in which the member's permanent duty station is located or, if not assigned to a permanent duty station, the State in which he regularly resides or maintains his home.
- Application for permission to import firearms and ammunition by military members of the United States Armed Forces must be filed on ATF Form 6 Part II (7570.3B). Commercial firms (i.e., firearms importers, dealers, etc.) must use ATF Form 6 Part I (7570.3A) to apply for permission to import firearms and ammunition.

This information is used by the finance offices for collection from the member in case of access costs. b. Information is taken from the DD Form 1290 to prepare the Government Bill of Lading and other shipping documents applicable) to move the personal property. c. Information on this form is released to carriers. Yoluntary — If information is not invalided, personal property cannot be shipped.

CONDITION FOR STORAGE

- n consideration of said household goods being stored at lovernment expense, I hereby agree as follows:
- l. The Government is authorized to enter into any agreenent and to do all acts and things which may be convenint or necessary to store the household goods. Storage if the household goods to furnished subject to such appliable laws and regulations as are now or may hereafter be a effect.
- I. The Government may store the household goods in Government facilities or in commercial storage under a Government contract.
- B. The Government may move or transfer by any appropriate means the household goods from their present location to Government or commercial storage facilities and theseafter to other Government or commercial storage lacilities and from such facilities to an appropriate destination upon termination of storage.
- 5. When the household goods are stored in Government lacilities and the authorized period for storage at Government expense expires, the Government may require me to remove the household goods from their place of storage.
- in the event, after 30 days notice, I fall to remove the household goods or if, after diligent effort, notice to me can not be efficied, the Government may proceed as follows: (a) Place and store the household goods in commercial storage at my expense, or (b) if commercial warehouseman will not accept the household goods for commercial storage at my expense, the Government is hereby authorized to take whatever action in accordance with law and regulation may be deemed appropriate to effect disposition of the household goods.
- 5. When the household goods are stored in commercial facilities and the authorized period of storage at Government expense expires, all storage and incidental charges accruing after the last day of the authorized period of storage shall be at my expense.
- 6. The Government shall not be liable for charges incident to storage or services in connection with the household goods (1) not authorised by law or regulation to be at Government expense, (2) in excess of weight limitations imposed by law or regulation, or (3) after the expiration of the period for which storage at Government expense is authorised.

IMPORTANT

THE HOUSEHOLD GOODS MAY BE STORED IN COMMERCIAL FACILITIES:

a. Government contracts for the storage of household goods limit the liability of the warehouseman to $50 per article or package as listed on the warehouse receipt. Applicants are advised to consider obtaining insurance on their household goods while such goods are in storage.

b. The Government will not be responsible for goods remaining in commercial storage after the expiration of the authorized period of storage at Government expense.
